

CONTENTS

	Page
Preface	v
Acknowledgements	v
National Malleefowl Forum 2007 – Programme	vi
Resolutions of the Forum	x
1. Sandell, P.                      Aims of the National Malleefowl Forum	1
2. Benshemesh, J.                Progress towards a national system of monitoring and adaptive management for Malleefowl	4
3. Stokie, A.                        Towards a national system: the power of the people	17
4. Ewin, P.                          Malleefowl in New South Wales: review of past and future actions	21
5. Stokie, P.                        Victorian state round-up – achievements since Mildura 2004	32
6. Gillam, S.                        Malleefowl conservation in South Australia: achievements from 2004 to 2007	40
7. Danzi, C.                         Achievements in Western Australian Malleefowl conservation since the forum at Mildura in 2004	47
8. Ward, M. & Bellchambers, K.    Status, monitoring and management of Nganamara in the southern Alinytjara Wilurara Natural Resource Management region	57
9. Partridge, T.                    Nganamara in South Australia's Anangu Pitjantjatjara Lands	70 Yankunytjatjara
10. Gillespie, J.                    Captive breeding and management of Malleefowl ( Leipoa ocellata ) at Western Plains Zoo, 1989 to present	74
11. Mulder, R., Dunn, P. & Donnellan, S.    Conservation genetics of Malleefowl	81
12. Sinclair, J.R.                    Are we doing enough? A review of the conservation status of megapodes and the implementation of their action plans	84
13. Mauro, I.                        Bruijn's Brush-turkey Aepyodius bruijni : field discovery, and conservation of an enigma	107 monitoring
14. Jones, D. N. Megapodes in northern Australia: a summary of recent research on the Orange-footed Scrubfowl and Australian Brush-turkey	120
15. Parsons, B. Malleefowl in the Western Australian Wheatbelt; an ecological study informed by community knowledge	126
16. van der Waag, J.                How to support the recruitment of Malleefowl Leipoa ocellata in small remnants: an overview	130

of project findings

17. Coombes, C.J., Dehaan, R. & Wilson, A.L.	Post-release survival of captive-reared Malleefowl in western new South Wales	137
18. Benshemesh, J. Dennings, S., Danzi, C. & Saunders, A.	Malleefowl searches at Yeelirrie Station in arid Western Australia: a valuable collaboration between industry and volunteers	142
19. Stokie, P.	Re-searching malleefowl monitoring sites – a Victorian Malleefowl Recovery group perspective	153
20. Priddel, D., Wheeler, R. & Copley, P.	Does the integrity or structure of mallee habitat influence the degree of fox predation on Malleefowl?	158
21. Scheltema, M. & Jones, P.	Malleefowl at Mt. Gibson minesite	162
22. Reichelt, R. W.	Little Desert Nature Lodge presentation	166